CHINA PRIVATE VISIT VISA EXPRESS VISA FOR UNITED KINGDOM NATIONALS

- New China Rules:
  - We are able to lodge at the China Visa centres in London and Manchester.
  - All applicants between the ages of 14 to 69 (inclusive) must attend the China visa centre to have their finger print scanned as part of the visa process. Regent Visas will help you with this as part of our service which includes lodging and collecting your Chinese visa application. Regent Visas is an officially registered Agent with the Embassy, and by using our services you will bypass the queues.
  - We are able to lodge at the China Visa centres in London and Manchester.
  - Contact us to arrange an appointment at the relevant centre. If you require to be served at the visa centre as a priority ahead of other clients, then kindly add in addition to your order our Priority Pass product.
  - To lodge in London, we require copies of all necessary documents (including the visa form), verified by us and deemed correct, no later than 4.30pm the day before the application needs lodging. The appointment cut off time is 5pm, and appointments can only be made for the next working day at the earliest. On the day of the appointment we must receive the originals in our office in London, no later than 9am in the office, unless another arrangement has been made.
- Passport
  - Has to have at least two blank visa pages.
  - Be valid 6 months after the entry date in China.
- A clear photocopy of the applicants passport Bio info page(s), this includes the photo, and previous China visa.
  - If a previous expired visa is in another passport then supply a copy of both the visa and the photo page of that passport. If not available include a letter to the Embassy explaining why it is not available. You still need to provide a photocopy from the current passport.
  - If you have a valid China visa in another passport then supply that actual passport as well.
  - If the applicant has a China visa which is valid for 3 months or more, then it must be used and a new visa cannot be issued. However, if it is valid for less than 3 months a new visa can be issued, but the applicant must supply a letter addressed to the Embassy asking for it to be cancelled and the reason why.
