CHINA NON-COMMERICAL (F) STANDARD VISA FOR UNITED KINGDOM NATIONALS

- New China Rules:
  - All applicants between the ages of 14 to 69 (inclusive) must attend the China visa centre to have their finger print scanned as part of the visa process. Regent Visas will help you with this as part of our service which includes lodging and collecting your Chinese visa application. Regent Visas is an officially registered Agent with the Embassy, and by using our services you will bypass the queues.
  - We are able to lodge at the China Visa centres in London and Manchester.
  - Contact us to arrange an appointment at the relevant centre. If you require to be served at the visa centre as a priority ahead of other clients, then kindly add in addition to your order our Priority Pass product.
  - To lodge in London, we require copies of all necessary documents (including the visa form), verified by us and deemed correct, no later than 4.30pm the day before the application needs lodging. The appointment cut off time is 5pm, and appointments can only be made for the next working day at the earliest. On the day of the appointment we must receive the originals in our office in London, no later than 9am in the office, unless another arrangement has been made.
  - To lodge in Manchester we require an email of the correct documents from the applicant the day before the appointment.
- Passport
  - Be valid 6 months after the entry date in China.
  - Has to have at least two blank visa pages.
  - If the applicant is a dual national then both original passports must be supplied
  - If the applicant is a dual national and one of the passports is British, then the visa must applied for in that passport, but both passports must be supplied.
- A clear photocopy of the applicants passport Bio info page(s), this includes the photo, and previous China visa.
  - If you have a valid China visa in another passport then supply that actual passport as well.
  - If a previous expired China visa is in another passport then supply a copy of both the visa and the photo page of that passport. If not available include a letter to the Embassy explaining why it is not available. You still need to provide a photocopy from the current passport.
  - If the applicant has a China visa which is valid for 3 months or more, then it must be used and a new visa cannot be issued. However, if it is valid for less than 3 months a new visa can be issued, but the applicant must supply a letter addressed to the Embassy asking for it to be cancelled and the reason why.
- Visa Application Form
  - You must first create your own account on the Chine Visa centre website and in order to complete the visa form.
  - To create your account and complete the visa form online, click on this link View Form
  - Visa form completed online. Print and sign in black ink on pages 1 and 8.
  - If you are involved in Media or Consultancy then in section 3.1 you need to write your job title next to the box you tick.
  - You will also find the link in our downloadable pack
- Photographs
  - A photo on a pure white background must be uploaded as part of the online visa form completion process.
  - You will find the photo guidance in our downloadable pack.
- Letter of Invitation
  - Can be a scan.
  - Needs to be on company headed paper, must include the address, phone and fax numbers.

- Important Visa Information
  - Sometimes the original of the invite for business might be asked for Non British passport holders without a reason.
  - Non-commercial is an 'F' category visa
  - You must enter within the validity dates of the visa. Upon entry you may stay the maximum number of days as stated on your visa. Some occupations i.e. Doctors, Priests and Journalists can be restricted to the length of their trip i.e. 12 days.
  - Some job titles such as Doctors, Priests and people in Media work, need to provide a day to day itinerary of their trip.
  - Travellers should only apply for visas for stays up to 30 days, unless they have a written explanation why they need to stay longer.
  - Please note: To ensure the authenticity of the business invitation letter you provide, the Chinese Embassy may contact your inviter and request a copy of the I.D belonging to the person who signed your invite. If the name, or position or signature of this person is not accurate, then the Embassy may return your application without a visa. The Embassy charges an administration fee for rejected applications. Therefore you can include a copy of the inviters Chinese I.D card as an optional extra.
  - You can only apply for a visa no more than 3 months before the travel date.

- If you have a Criminal record documents provide a copy of the Police report.
- Temporarily you must take a copy of the business invite letter that was used to get your business visa, when you travel to China.
